

ALL WORK is WORTH-SHIP

flow

FAITH + LEADERSHIP

WEALTH

FLOW Conference 2026

Speaker

Tyrone Brand

Session Title

Calling: What are you shaped for?

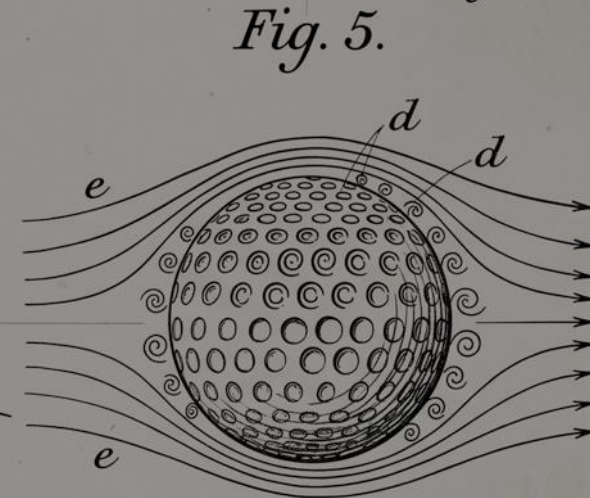

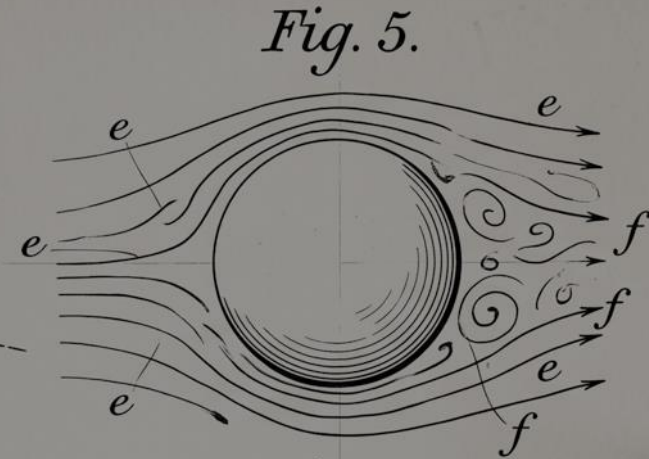

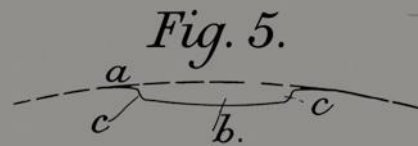

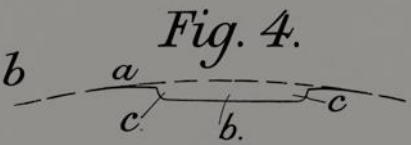

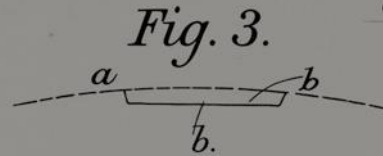

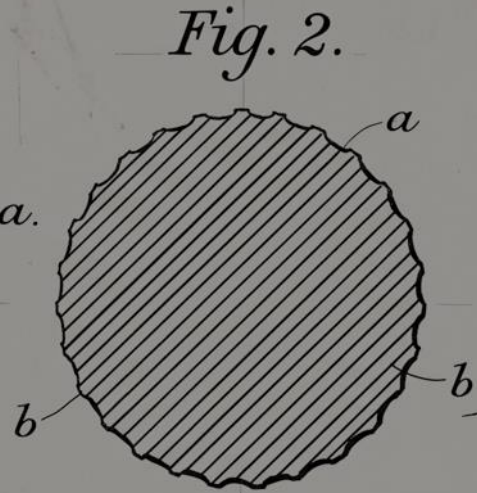

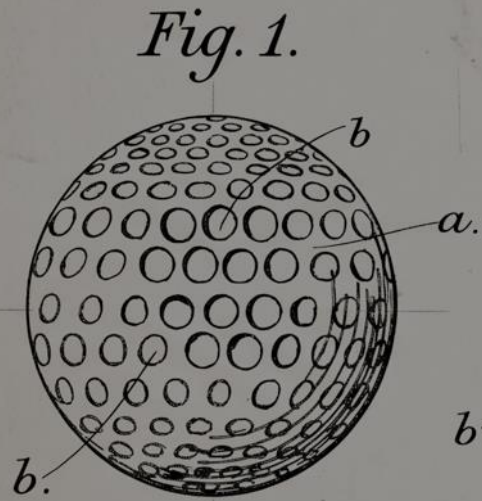

Fig. 6: Airflow Effect

Form follows function.

All Work is Worth-Ship

We do not shape ourselves.

Job 10:8

Jeremiah 18:6

Psalms 139: 14

Ephesians 2:10

But other forces will try to shape you too.

Your worldview will determine who you worship.

The background of the slide features a collection of various geometric shapes, including spheres, cubes, pyramids, and prisms, in a range of colors like red, blue, yellow, and grey. These shapes are arranged on a light-colored, textured surface against a backdrop of a wall with a mottled, painterly texture in shades of red, orange, and grey. The text is overlaid on the left side of this image.

God has created us in His image

but we are all unique in how we express His image.

All Work is Worth-Ship

SHAPE

Spiritual Gifts

What gifts flow naturally when I am helping others?

All Work is Worth-Ship

Heart

What causes, problems or groups of people I do care about?

Abilities

What talents, skills, strengths do I have that God can use?

All Work is Worth-Ship

Personality

How has God uniquely made me to interact with the world?

Experiences

What life experience do I have that can be of service to others?

All Work is Worth-Ship

A baby is lying on their back, wearing a pink tutu and a white flower headband. The baby is smiling and looking up. The background is a light blue wall with a white decorative border.

Frame works are useful

but don't turn inward.

A cinematic still from a film depicting Moses in a desert setting. He is shown from the waist up, kneeling on the ground, wearing a long, light-colored robe with a dark, fringed shawl draped over his shoulders. He has a long, grey beard and is looking intently at a small, leafy bush that is engulfed in bright, intense flames. His hands are raised in a gesture of awe or communication. In the background, the desert landscape is visible with rolling hills and a few animals, possibly sheep, grazing. The sky is a mix of soft orange and blue, suggesting dawn or dusk.

A call in your weakness and inadequacy?

All Work is Worth-Ship

A call to obedience in tough environments?

All Work is Worth-Ship

A call in spite of feeling disqualified?

All Work is Worth-Ship

A call to hidden seasons?

All Work is Worth-Ship

“Well done good & faithful servant”

Matthew 25: 23

Proverbs 6:6-8

Matthew 16:24

Colossians 3:17

All Work is Worth-Ship

Thank You.